

Publishers: Jaypee Brothers Medical Publishers (P) Ltd.
Also available online at www.jaypeebrothers.com
ISBN 9789388958981
₹ 4250

Donald School The Fetus as a Patient Current Perspectives

The book The Fetus as a Patient is an excellent amalgamation of topics like Obesity in Pregnancy, professional responsibility and Ethics, Twin to twin transfusion syndrome and Fetal arrhythmias. All the international experts and stellar worths have contributed chapters like 3D,4D Ultrasound, IUGR, PROM, preterm births, antenatal corticosteroids, ventriculomegaly and critical care in Obstetrics. Images of chapter Motor and cognitive function of fetal brain, congenital uterine anomalies, placenta accreta, monochorionicity and cervical length assessment in cervical insufficiency will help the readers a lot. Impact of carcinoma in Pregnancy on Fetus, implantation and fetal health and impact of advanced maternal age are topics which are less discussed and have been described with current guidelines. There was much need of this book. The book is a must to keep ourselves updated as internet generally cannot provide complete information related to a topic with all recent evidence piled up in a single book. We recommend this book in all international libraries and for all busy consultants and postgraduate students to get themselves abreast with the current evidence-based treatment approach.

Narendra Malhotra
Managing Director
Global Rainbow Healthcare
Agra, Uttar Pradesh, India

Ruchika Garg
Associate Professor
Department of Obstetrics & Gynecology
SN Medical College
Agra, Uttar Pradesh, India

Edited by

Frank A Chervenak MD, MMM
Chair of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Lenox Hill Hospital; Chair of Obstetrics and Gynecology and Associate Dean of International Medicine, Zucker School of Medicine, Hofstra/Northwell, New York, USA

Sanja Kupescic Plavsic MD, PhD
Senior Associate Academic Dean for Faculty Development, Paul L Foster School of Medicine, Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center EL Paso, Texas, USA

Asim Kurjak MD, PhD
Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology at Medical School Universities of Zagreb and Sarajevo, and Professor Emeritus at University Sarajevo School of Science and Technology.