

News and Events

CME Program on High-Risk Pregnancy

The Obstetrical and Gynaecological Society of Bangladesh (OGSB) and Asia and Oceania Federation of Obstetrics and Gynaecology (AOFOG) jointly organized CME program on high-risk pregnancy on 12th May 2012, which was held at Milon Hall of BSMMU. The inaugural session began at 8:30 AM. Welcome address was delivered by Prof Nasima Begum, Secretary General—OGSB. Prof TA Chowdhury, past President of OGSB was present as chief guest. Dr Narendra Malhotra, Chairman of Newsletter, Publication and YGAA of AOFOG, was present as special guest.

The first session started at around 09:00 AM with the chairmanship of Prof Kohinoor Begum, second and third sessions were chaired by Prof AKM Anowar-ul-Azim and Prof Shahla Khatun. Speakers were Dr Narendra Malhotra and Dr Jaideep Malhotra from India. Local speakers were Prof TA Chowdhury, Prof Rahima Begum, Prof Parveen Fatima, Prof Firoza Begum and Prof Ferdousi Islam.

Two panels discussion were conducted by Dr Narendra Malhotra and Dr Jaideep Malhotra. Panelists were Prof TA Chowdhury, Prof Latifa Shamsuddin, Prof Shamsun Nahar Hena, Dr Nazneen Kabir and Prof Iffat Ara, Prof Sayeba Akhter, Prof M Anwar Hussain, Prof Laila Arjumand Banu, Prof Saleha Begum Chowdhury, Prof Maliha Rashid and Prof Farhana dewan. There were lively questions and answers remaining among all and valuable comments were given by them.

Four hundred and twenty-two participants from all over the country attended the program. The session ended with vote of thanks to the organizers with special thanks to Treasurer—OGSB, Prof Parveen Fatima, for coordinating the program.