

News and Events

FIGO Participation on ARSH during Adolescent Health Committee Workshop AICOG 2013, Mumbai

The Adolescent Health FOGSI Committee Workshop was held on 17th January 2013, at the Trident Hotel, Bandra (E), Mumbai, during the AICOG 2013, Mumbai, which was a great success with good number of participants involved.

The first session was chaired by Professor Dr Alka Kriplani, HOD, AIIMS, Delhi, and Professor Dr Walker, Senior Vice President of the RCOG, UK.

Due to an important FIGO commitment, Professor Hamid Rushwan—Chief Executive of FIGO—could not come for the workshop but he was kind enough to share his presentation which was well covered by Professor Dr CN Purandare, President Elect, FIGO, talked in detail on the topic of ‘Adolescent Sexual Reproductive Health Global Views’. We are very grateful to Professor Purandare for the same.

The second session was chaired by Professor Dr Walker, Dr Duru Shah (Past President of FOGSI and Past FIGO Representative) and Dr Millind Shah (Past VP FOGSI).

Professor Dr Lesly Regan, FIGO Committee on Women’s Sexual and Reproductive Rights, spoke on the topic of ‘Adolescent Health Issues in UK, the need for prevention and life skills approach to women’s health’.

The Adolescence magazine issue 08 was released in presence of the invited guest speakers and faculty members by Dr Narendra Malhotra, past President of FOGSI and FIGO representative who praised the work done by the committee and encouraged the members for their continued good efforts.

At the end, Dr Roza Olyai, Vice President Elect, FOGSI 2014, shared overview of the Adolescent Health Committee FOGSI activities of which she has been the Chairperson since 2009 till date. This was followed by a special award ceremony for the advisors and members of the committee.

Special thanks were given to Dr Hamid Rushwan, Chief Executive of FIGO and, Dr Arulkumaran, President of FIGO under whose guidance the Adolescent Health Committee FOGSI was doing its projects.

On this occasion, FIGO guest members present were honored. The program ended by vote of thanks and high tea.

SOGP in Disaster Camps

SOGP Family Planning Camps

End of day 2: Camp kids singing songs