Respected Sir,

Good Morning and Season's Greetings!

I have browsed through the website of your esteemed Journal of South Asian Federation of Obstetrics and Gynecology (JSAFOG) published by the institution. The outlook and the presentation of the journal is excellent, the articles published are of high standards and informative to the clinicians. In addition, the review process appears to very fast and encourages the rapid publication of the articles. I hope that the editorial board expedites the acceptance of the articles for publication.

Thanking you

Sincerely
